

BIO

Shenette Howard, Miss Florida International 2006, possesses a natural gift of exhortation and has embraced her calling to share her lifestyle of making positive choices.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Shenette is a first generation college graduate and is currently pursuing a Master of Science degree in Mental Health Counseling.

She is a polished motivational speaker who has spoken throughout the country including to the United States House of Representatives and Senate. Shenette's message has been seen and heard in multiple media venues.

She's been featured in Jacksonville's NtoU magazine, nationally recognized Gospel Today magazine, and was privileged to be a panel guest on NBC's The Today Show. As a television personality, she likewise landed the role of co-host for a reality television show aired on the CW Network: Real Girls Real Life.

Sharing and educating youth about making healthy lifestyle choices is her passion, but Shenette is just as passionate about the performing arts. She is a dance choreographer and a former NFL cheerleader for the Jacksonville Jaguar ROAR.

An entrepreneur at heart, Shenette aspires to own a performing arts center for underprivileged youth giving them a positive outlet to artistically express themselves. She also wants to host a well syndicated news entertainment show or a talk show as she continues traveling and speaking to young people about positive choices.

With a heart of obedience and patience, Shenette Howard is just an ordinary young woman God has chosen to be salt and light in this day and age.

“I’m slated for destiny and purpose is tracking me down.”
